DG ICMR greets staff on New Year

New Delhi, January 1st 2019

Secretary Department of Health Research & DG ICMR Dr. Balram Bhargava greeted the ICMR staff on the New Year. During his speech Dr. Bhargava thanked the staff for their work in the previous year and boosted the morale of the staff to work for the betterment of the institute so that the organization can serve the nation in future as well.

Dr Bhargava prioritised that Health and Education are the pillars for the development of a nation and the need is to focus on them; being in the department of Health research we need to give the country what is lacking in Health research, he added.

Director General also listened to some queries and messages from different regional Institutes of ICMR as well as from the staff at the headquarters.
